CIRCULAR

Subject : Legacy Plan of Commonwealth Games 2010

It is evident that Delhi will host Commonwealth Games 2010. A lot of sports infrastructure is being created for these games. As a step towards the legacy of these games, there is a dire need of development of sports infrastructure including grounds and complexes in different Government schools so that the maximum students may get an opportunity to utilize the sports infrastructure. This can be possible through:

- a) Upgradation of the existing sports facilities in the schools.
- b) Identification of sports facilities which need to be provided in a particular school.
- c) Creation of sports infrastructure required in schools taking into consideration the availability of grounds.
- d) Spotting and nurturing talent in different sports disciplines.
- e) Availability vis-à-vis requirement of sports material and equipments in schools.

Reference is invited towards this office earlier circular no. DE 41/Sports/2010/CWG/ 19639 - 20638 dated 30th March 2010 whereby the following officers were directed to visit the Government schools in the district shown against each and submit a detailed report, by 30th April 2010, alongwith action plan :
