Subject: Security of Official Information & Documents.

I am directed to say that the 2nd Administrative Reforms Commission in its 1st Report titled, "Right to Information - Master Key to Good Governance" had recommended that the Para 116 of the Chapter XIII of the Central Secretariat Manual of Office Procedure be amended and reworded as follows:

"Communication of Official Information: Every Government Servant shall, in performance of his duties in good faith, communicate to a member of public or any organization full and accurate information, which can be disclosed under the Right to Information Act 2005. (Nothing stated above shall be construed as permitting communication of classified information in an unauthorized manner or for improper gains to a Government Servant or others)."

2. Commission had also recommended that the State Governments may also be advised to carry out similar amendments in their Manuals, if such provisions exist therein.

3. Keeping in view the above recommendations of the 2nd Administrative Commission, the Department of Administrative Reforms & Public Grievances, Government of India had written to the all the State/UT Governments vide O.M. No.46013/3/2007 dated 28.5.2008 to take suitable necessary action in the matter (Copy enclosed).

4. It is requested that action taken in the matter may kindly be intimated to this Department on priority.

Yours faithfully,

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Sub: Security of Official Information & Documents.

The Department of Administrative Reforms & Public Grievances in the Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances & Pensions, as a nodal Government agency is charged with the responsibility of prescribing procedures for Secretariat work. These find embodiment in the Central Secretariat Manual of Office Procedure (CSMOP).

2. Chapter XIII of the MOP deals with Security of Official Information & Documents. Para 116 of this chapter is reproduced below:-

116.	Unauthorized communication of official information: - Unless authorized by general or specific orders, no official will communicate to another official or a non-official, any information or documents(s) (including electronic document(s) which has come into his possession in the course of his official duties.

3. It would be recalled that the Government of India appointed the 2nd Administrative Reforms Commission on 31st August 2005. This Commission has already submitted its first report on Right to Information Act. In this report the Commission has made a recommendation that this Para may be amended as follows:

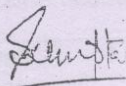

contd...2/-

6.	The Manual of Office Procedure (Para 3.2.3)
6. (a)	Para 116 of the Manual of Office Procedure needs to be reworded as follows: "Communication of Official Information: Every Government Servant shall, in performance of his duties in good faith, communicate to a member of public or any organization full and accurate information, which can be disclosed under the Right to Information Act. (Nothing stated above shall be construed as permitting communication of classified information in an unauthorized manner or for improper gains to a Government Servant or others)."

4. The Commission also recommended that the State Governments may be advised to carry out similar amendments in their Manuals, if such provisions exist therein.

5. Consequent upon the recommendation of the ARC, the Government of India has amended the Para 116 accordingly vide order dated 10.5.2008 (copy attached)

6. Accordingly all the State Governments are requested to examine the matter and take suitable necessary action under intimation to this Department.
