CIRCULAR

It has been reported that some application forms under the National Food Security Act 2013 have been deposited by the beneficiaries in the wrong circle office instead of their concerned circle office or there may be possibility of sending/receiving of these application forms by the FSOs of different circles. It has been directed that in such cases, the mis-sent application forms should be returned to the concerned circle FSO under proper receipt.

This issues with the prior approval of Secretary-cum-Commissioner, F&S.
