Subject: - First Constitution Day on 26th November, 2015.

A Constitution is the Supreme law of the land. It reflects the aspirations of the citizenry, ideals and values in governance of a country. The Constitution of India is a rich document which holds key to the governance of world's largest democracy. It enshrines the best of human values and governance practices from constitutions of various countries. It was completed and accepted by our constituent assembly on 26-11-1949. To mark this occasion Government of India has decided to celebrate 26-11-2015 as the 'First Constitution Day'.

In this regard, please find enclosed herewith the D.O. letter No.14-154/2015-Sch-3 dated 30.10.2015 received from the Joint Secretary (SE.I), Ministry of Human Resource Development (Department of School Education & Literacy), Govt. of India, Shastri Bhawan, New Delhi on the subject cited above.

All the Head of Govt., Govt. Aided & Unaided Recognized Schools are hereby instructed to celebrate the first "Constitution Day" on 26th November, 2015 with the following activities for promoting the values enshrined of the Constitution :-

- (i) Preamble to the Constitution (as it exists on date) may be read out in the school assembly on 26th November, 2015 by all students.
- (ii) One period may be devoted on 26th November, 2015 for a talk on the salient features of the Constitution of India and its making, by a guest speaker or one of the teachers.
- (iii) Essay competitions and quizzes may be organized on the theme of the Constitution.

This issues with the prior approval of the Competent Authority.
