CIRCULAR

As the stock position of beer available for ordering has been reviewed on 10.06.2015 at 10.00am and it has been found that no stock available for Carlsberg Super Strong Beer, and some other brands of beer of M/s Carlsberg, all beer brands of M/s Budwiser, Kingfisher Extra Strong Premium Beer of M/s United Breweries as the stock position shown on ESCIMS website was zero. The stock available for other brands is also not adequate for one week. The zero availability of the stock shows that the concerned licencees are not maintaining the adequate stock required under Rule 89 of Delhi Excise Rules, 2010, under which it has been prescribed that stock at least for seven days shall be maintained but the licencees are not adhering the same. The non availability of the stock causes loss to the excise duty as retailer are unable to order and make available beer brands to the customer due to non availability of stock for ordering.

The concerned Excise Inspectors have also failed to monitor the availability and requisite quantity of the stock envisaged under Rule 89 of Delhi Excise Rules, 2010 and terms & conditions of the licence.

In view of the above all the L-1 licencees are hereby directed to maintain stock required for at least one week, otherwise the Department will constrained to recover penalty equivalent to Excise Duty on one week stock as envisaged in Rule 89 of Delhi Excise Rules, 2010 and suitable action against the Excise Inspectors shall also be taken for failing to enforce the provisions of Rule 89 of Delhi Excise Rules, 2010.
