CIRCULAR

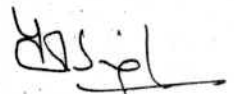

Sub: Educational visit of school children to the Election Museum.

India is a democratic country and elections are of utmost importance in democratic country. An Election Museum namely "Journey Through Elections" have been developed in the office premises of Chief Electoral Officer, Delhi, Old St. Stephan's College Building, Kashmere Gate, Delhi – 110006 to create an environment and learning place to know about our electoral legacy, electoral management and views of Mahatma Gandhi on the democracy and election process.

The Centre has been envisaged to impart knowledge and education related with elections to citizens in general and students in particular which shall remain open from 11.00 AM to 4.00 PM on all working days. The school children, especially, students of Secondary, Sr. Secondary classes who are aspiring voters in near future will find it very useful.

Therefore, all the Heads of Private Unaided Recognized Schools of Delhi, who desire VOLUNTARILY to arrange visits of their students to said Election Museum, are hereby advised to contact Sh. Sandip Dutta, Election Officer (SVEEP) on phone No.23946414 or email id ceodelhi@eci.gov.in for further query/clarification. For prior booking of time of visit, a website www.ceodelhi.gov.in/electionmuseum has been created for facilitating the visit.

This issues with the prior approval of Competent Authority.
