CIRCULAR

Sub: - Awareness of Air Pollution.

All the Heads of Govt., Govt. Aided & Unaided Recognized Schools under Directorate of Education must sensitize students and staff members about various kinds of pollution with special focus on reasons contributing to rise in air pollution and has negative & serious impact on health for all especially children and elderly people. Therefore, it is important that children are considered 'Ambassadors of change' and provided regular awareness, whenever possible, according to the academic calendar, special assemblies dedicated to issues on pollution may be organised in all schools by Staff/SMC members, and by inviting experts from technical organizations and civil society.

This issues with prior approval of the Competent Authority.
