Goa, Manipur, Punjab, Uttarakhand and Uttar Pradesh.

Sub: Hearings by the Chief Minister / Ministers during Model Code period - reg.

Sir,

It has been brought to the notice of the Commission that the Chief Minister and Ministers or Politically appointed office bearers of statutory bodies continue to hear appeals filed by persons under various prevailing Acts and laws in the State even when the Model Code of Conduct comes into force in connection with general elections in the States.

Since the Model Code of Conduct has come into force after announcement of General Elections to Legislative Assembly of your State on 4th January, 2017, any such hearings by Chief Minister or Ministers or Politically appointed office bearers of statutory bodies may have direct or indirect influence on voters and also may disturb the level playing field.

Considering the facts and circumstances, the Commission has directed that all such hearings by Chief Minister and Minister or Politically appointed office bearers of statutory bodies should be deferred till the conclusion of poll in all constituencies in your State. If any such hearing is required to be held in compliance with the mandatory provisions of law/any court order, such hearing in lieu of Chief Minister / Ministers or Politically appointed office bearers of statutory bodies, should be held by a Secretary Level Officer nominated by the Chief Secretary of the State, where the law provides for delegation of the power to such officer.

The Commission has further directed that action taken in this matter may please be intimated latest by 17th January, 2017.

Yours faithfully,

(SUMIT MUKHERJEE)
