CIRCULAR

Reference subject above, since it was observed that there are considerable amount of applications where query has been raised, it was decided in the meeting with the Chief Minister on 28/09/2017 that the Department may conduct home visits and collect the necessary documents as per the query raised by the District Office.

For the said purpose, the department has made correspondence with the Department of Women and Child Development for deputation of Aanganwadi Workers to conduct Home visits and collect documents along with the filling of pro-forma (which the can be collected District wise by each District from Financial Assistance Section, HQ).

All District Social Welfare Officers are requested to kindly coordinate with the CDPOs /Deputed staff to carry out the verification process. Also, the DSWOs may kindly ensure that after the verification process is completed, the said documents are uploaded and the applications are updated so that the decision for sanction may be taken within stipulated time.
