Subject: Celebration of 125th Year of Swami Vivekananda's famous speeches at World Parliament of Religions at Chicago 1893.

Sir/Madam,
(Schools)

As you are aware, the 125th anniversary of the historic occasion of the address of Swami Vivekananda, at the World's Parliament of Religions in 1893, at Chicago falls this year. It is an occasion to recall the address proclaiming India's spiritual, cultural and intellectual greatness and it is relevant, educative and inspiring more particularly to school children. To commemorate the event, it may be appropriate to conduct various competitions for the school students, so that they study and imbibe these inspiring thoughts of Swami Vivekananda and develop into responsible and enlightened citizens of this great country.
