Circular

On examining a case in the vigilance department it has been observed that the charge-sheet for major penalty was issued to an employee through his DDO office few days before his retirement on superannuation, but the concerned officials/officers of DDO office as well as Pension Branch ignored the fact of issuance of charge-sheet for major penalty proceedings against the employee concerned and processed the case for payment of retirement benefits to the said employee. The said process of payment of retirement benefits was stopped only after telephonic information conveyed to Pension Branch by the vigilance department.

In view of the above, the competent authority has directed that all the officers/officials dealing with the cases of payment of retirement benefits to the employee must be careful while dealing with such cases and ensure that the fact of pending disciplinary proceedings against the retiring employee is not ignored at any level. Any such case of negligence in future shall be viewed seriously.
