

No. DE.23(70)/RTE/2017/PF-III/ 301-305

Dated: 18/11/2020

CIRCULAR

Sub.: Conduct of Monthly Joint-Meeting of School Management Committees of Two Shifts Schools- Reg.

The SMCs are constituted in all the Government Schools of Delhi, as per the provisions of the RTE Act, 2009 with the vision to encourage to active involvement of parents in the functioning of the schools. Efforts have been made to improve the participation of parents in the management of schools through the School Management Committee (SMC).

As representative bodies, the SMCs are meant to bridge the gap between parents and the school. In order to enable the same and with the objective for better coordination between the two shift schools and for effective and optimum utilization of available common resources, the Heads of the Government Schools are directed to conduct Joint-Meetings of the SMCs of both shift schools once in a month compulsorily.

The Heads of Schools, which function in Morning shift have to take all necessary & Suitable action to organise the Joint-Meetings in close coordination with the HOS of evening shift schools.

The DDE (Districts) are requested to ensure that the Joint-Meetings of SMCs are conducted smoothly in two shifts Schools falling under their jurisdiction and furnish the compliance report the RTE Branch.

This issues with the approval of the competent authority.
