S.S.ZC(S)

2. In this regard, this Department is in receipt of references seeking clarification as to whether the facility of "Emergency Passage Concession" is available to the Government servant for travel from the station of posting to Home Town only or whether the Government servants can avail the facility to travel to the selected place of residence of family declared by them for the duration of their posting /transfer to these regions.

3. The matter has been considered in this Department in consultation with Department of Expenditure. It is clarified that "Emergency Passage Concession" can be availed by Government employees posted in North-East Region, Andaman & Nicobar Islands, Lakshadweep Islands and Union Territory of Ladakh to visit any one of the destinations, i.e. Home Town or any selected place of residence of the family declared by them for the duration of their posting/transfer to these regions.
