Government of NCT of Delhi,

I. P. Estate, New Delhi - 110 002

Dear Shri Kutty,

I want to record my appreciation of the progress made by your office in publishing various kinds of information in public domain. I was happy to learn from you during our meeting on 13th June, 2011 that your office has taken valuable efforts to provide suo moto information to the public. You also mentioned about the Bhagidari Camp which is held at Pragati Maidan where RTI booklets are kept on every counter, pamphlets about social welfare schemes are distributed and a fruitful interaction amongst the citizens and the government ensues. This innovative effort and initiative to reach out to the public is very commendable. Your kind offer to come and visit the Camp is greatly appreciated and I look forward to attending the same.

I had also suggested that the department may put up advertisements in the newspapers and radio about Section-4 of RTI Act, especially specific information which is already available on the websites of the departments, to which you have agreed. You would find attached herewith details of certain important directions of the Commission, given to departments for placing specific information on their websites and the web links of the same.

The major challenge is to ensure that the information is updated regularly. The departments can also put up copies of circulars issued on the websites; if this kind of proactive disclosure would be made in a time-bound manner by the Government, the number of RTI applications will decrease considerably as 20-30% of the applicants seek the photocopies of the circulars issued by the Government.

In a recent meeting with representative of RWA's of the South West District of Delhi and NGO's, the participants mentioned that they were unaware that so much specific information is available on the websites of various departments. I am sure together we can make Citizens aware of the information available on the websites of various Delhi Government Departments.

My best wishes to you and your officers.

Regards,
