Dear Sri D. M. Spolia,

The Department endeavors to identify Best Practices with a view to disseminate them and facilitate replication in other States/UTs. With this vision, '2nd Conference of District Collectors' is being organized on 6th & 7th September, 2013 at Vigyan Bhavan Annexe, New Delhi. The conference institutionalizes the process of interaction among the District Collectors who have done an exemplary job in the field. The conference will be inaugurated by Hon'ble MoS (PP). A copy of the programme is attached.

2. You are requested to nominate two or three District Collector/s or senior officers who have recently been transferred from the post of District Collectors. While nominating them it may kindly be ensured that the nominees have served for at least 6 months as District Collector so that they can share their experiences with other participants. It may also be seen that they have done exemplary work in any field such as Health, Public Distribution System, Law and order and LWE, Education, Land Resources, Drinking Water & Sanitation or any other miscellaneous field as per programme enclosed.

3. You are requested to nominate the District Collectors alongwith the topic of their presentation on best practices by 20th August, 2013 positively. The duration of each presentation will be 8 minutes followed by 7 minutes of interaction by the participating Collectors. The presentation should be of about ten slides and should be completed in eight minutes so that sufficient time is left for interactions. We are also inviting the concerned Secretaries of Government of India to be present during these presentations.

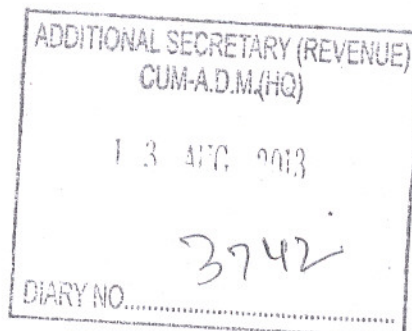

4. I will appreciate if the presentation is sent by 25th August, 2013 to Shri Sandeep Mohan Prasad, Under Secretary in this Department, who is coordinating the conference. His contact details are Tel: 011-23401456 and e-mail ID sm.prasad@nic.in.

Well regards

Yours sincerely,

Sanjay Kothari
