Since, some of the Writ Petitions, RFAs in the High Court and Reference, Suits/Execution cases in the District Courts are pending in different stages of hearing, the Govt. Counsels who are dealing with the cases shall continue to deal with those cases till it is disposed of, it he is continuing in the present panel.

The cases being dealt with by the Writ Cell of the Department of Land Acquisition and Alternative Branch shall be allotted to Counsels irrespective of the Districts looking into the importance and urgency of the cases.

In case of advance copy served on Standing Counsel or the Govt. Counsel accepted the notice as per direction of the Court who is present in the Court at that time, shall immediately inform the Writ Cell/Legal Cell about the notice accepted by him and the case shall be allotted to the Counsel by LA-cum-SC (L&B). The Govt. Counsels should ensure that in no case he/she should keep the matter with him/her and appear again and again without the assignment from the Writ Cell/Legal Cell.

After receiving such information, the Legal Officer concerned will issue BTF to the Counsel to whom the case has been allotted with a copy to the Govt. Counsel who has accepted the notice on behalf of the Department for information.

The Govt. Counsels shall inform the concerned Legal Officers of the Department of the proceedings of the Court immediately and also inform the action required to be taken by the Department on day to day basis.

The Govt. Counsels shall ensure that the certified copy of the order along with their fee bills shall be submitted to Writ Cell/Legal Cell immediately after passing of the order with their legal opinion and action required to be taken by the Department immediately with mentioning the limitation involved in the case.

All the cases shall be assigned to the Govt. Counsels as per District/Courts allotted to them, however, in exceptional cases where the substantial question of law/fact is involved, the case may be assigned to some other Counsels by the LA-cum-SC (L&B).

The Land Acquisition Collectors may assign miscellaneous and execution cases of their Districts from the Panel mentioned at 'C' of the notification from the panel of Misc. and Execution Cases in District Courts.

All the ADMs/LACs shall ensure that they may assign the fresh cases to the Counsels assigned to their respective Districts only. However, they may not withdraw the cases already assigned to any Govt. Counsels who is still on the Panel in public interest as he is well acquainted with the case. In case the Counsel allotted with the case is not on the present Panel it may be withdrawn from him and transferred to the Counsel who is on the present Panel and assigned the District.
