

BEFORE THE HON'BLE LOKAYUKTA

Justice Manmohan Sarin

Complaint No. C-243/Lok/2009/

Ms. Sunita Bhardwaj /Complainant

Vs.

Smt. Sheila Dikshit, Chief Minister, NCT of Delhi.

Present:-

Complainant in person.

Ms. Sunita Bhardwaj submits that this is a case of indiscriminate advertisements being carried out by the respondent amounting to misuse of public funds for personal ends in garb of projection of various policies, achievements and developmental works carried out by the government. She submits that the steep increase in the advertisements in the election year accompanied with advertisements carrying the photographs of the CM amounted to misuse of public funds and government machinery for projection of personal agenda.

After some submissions, she seeks leave of the forum to withdraw this complaint with liberty to file a complaint relying on and producing the text of advertisements showing the personal projection in the garb of projection of developmental activities.

Complaint is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty to file fresh complaint giving material particulars disclosing a cause of action.
