- ii. In case of girl child the minimum eligibility criteria of minimum marks 40% may be relaxed after seeking approval of the Competent Authority subject to securing minimum passing marks. Similarly, exceptional need cum merit case may be examined on individual basis on merit i.e. facts and circumstances of each case individually by the Scholarship Committee.
- iii. In case the number of eligible applicants is found on higher side in a year, wherein all these eligible employees are unable to cover within the provided budget, in such a situation all those eligible employees may be granted scholarship at the minimum laid down rates i.e. applicable to those securing up to 80% so as to cover all.
- iv. Employees whose children are getting reimbursement of Tuition Fees from Department are not entitled to get Scholarship.
- v. The ward of employees in receipt of scholarship/stipend/salary of any other financial support from the Central or State Government or from any source shall not be eligible for the Scholarship. But if the amount of such scholarship is less than the amount determined by the Delhi Jal Board, the DJB may award scholarship to the extent of difference.

The revised Scholarship Scheme will be effective from 2014-2015.

This issues with the approval of Competent Authority.
