ADVISORY

Administration has been receiving complaints from the patients suffering from long term diseases that the patients are not being issued/prescribed medicines for more than a period of fifteen days and they have to go to the dispensary very frequently for getting prescribed the same medicines.

In order to alleviate the hardships being faced by such employees/beneficiaries, all the Medical Officer Incharges [MoI] of DJB dispensaries are requested to issue/prescribe medicines for a period of one month at a time to the employees of DJB/beneficiaries who are availing of medical facilities under the Delhi Jal Board Medical Scheme and are suffering from chronic illnesses like diabetes, tuberculosis, heart ailment, hypertension and epilepsy, etc.
