

PRESS RELEASE

It has been reported in a section of the press that certain schools namely, BGS International School, Dwarka, VSPK International School, Rohini and Prabhu Dayal Public School, Shalimar Bagh are not complying with the provisions of the admission policy for pre-primary classes as notified by the Directorate of Education orders dated 18.12.2013 and 27.12.2013 respectively.

The Directorate of Education took a serious note of these reports and issued Show Cause Notices to these schools seeking their explanation on the matter. Further, the Deputy Directors of Education of the districts concerned visited these schools on 4th January, 2014 to verify the allegations made in this regard.

The Principals of these schools in their replies to the show cause notices, have admitted their lapse and have expressed regret for inadvertently deviating from the aforesaid orders of the Directorate of Education. They have rectified the errors and further assured that they will henceforth strictly abide by the policy regarding admission to pre primary classes in schools as notified vide the orders of the Directorate dated 18.12.2013 and 27.12.2013.

Further, all private unaided schools have been advised to strictly follow the policy regarding admission to pre-primary classes in letter and spirit.
