3. Relevant facts emerging during the hearing-

An ATR has been filed by Sh. Ajay Kumar, Dy. Commissioner of Police (East) stating that-

"2nd MLC result from Rml Hospital has been obtained in which Dr. Samar Rahman sr. SV. RML Hospital has opined that "as per record, nature of injury was simple" The investigation of the case has been completed and chargesheet will be filed in the Hon'ble Court for judicial verdict".

The I.O. also informed that the investigation of the case was almost ~~complete~~ ^{complete} complainant and the case file was being sent for scrutiny and charge sheet will be filed within 15 days times in the Court.

Thus, the police has already looked into the complaint of the complainant regarding second opinion in respect of injuries sustained by him, from RML Hospital, where the doctors have again opined the nature of injury as "simple".

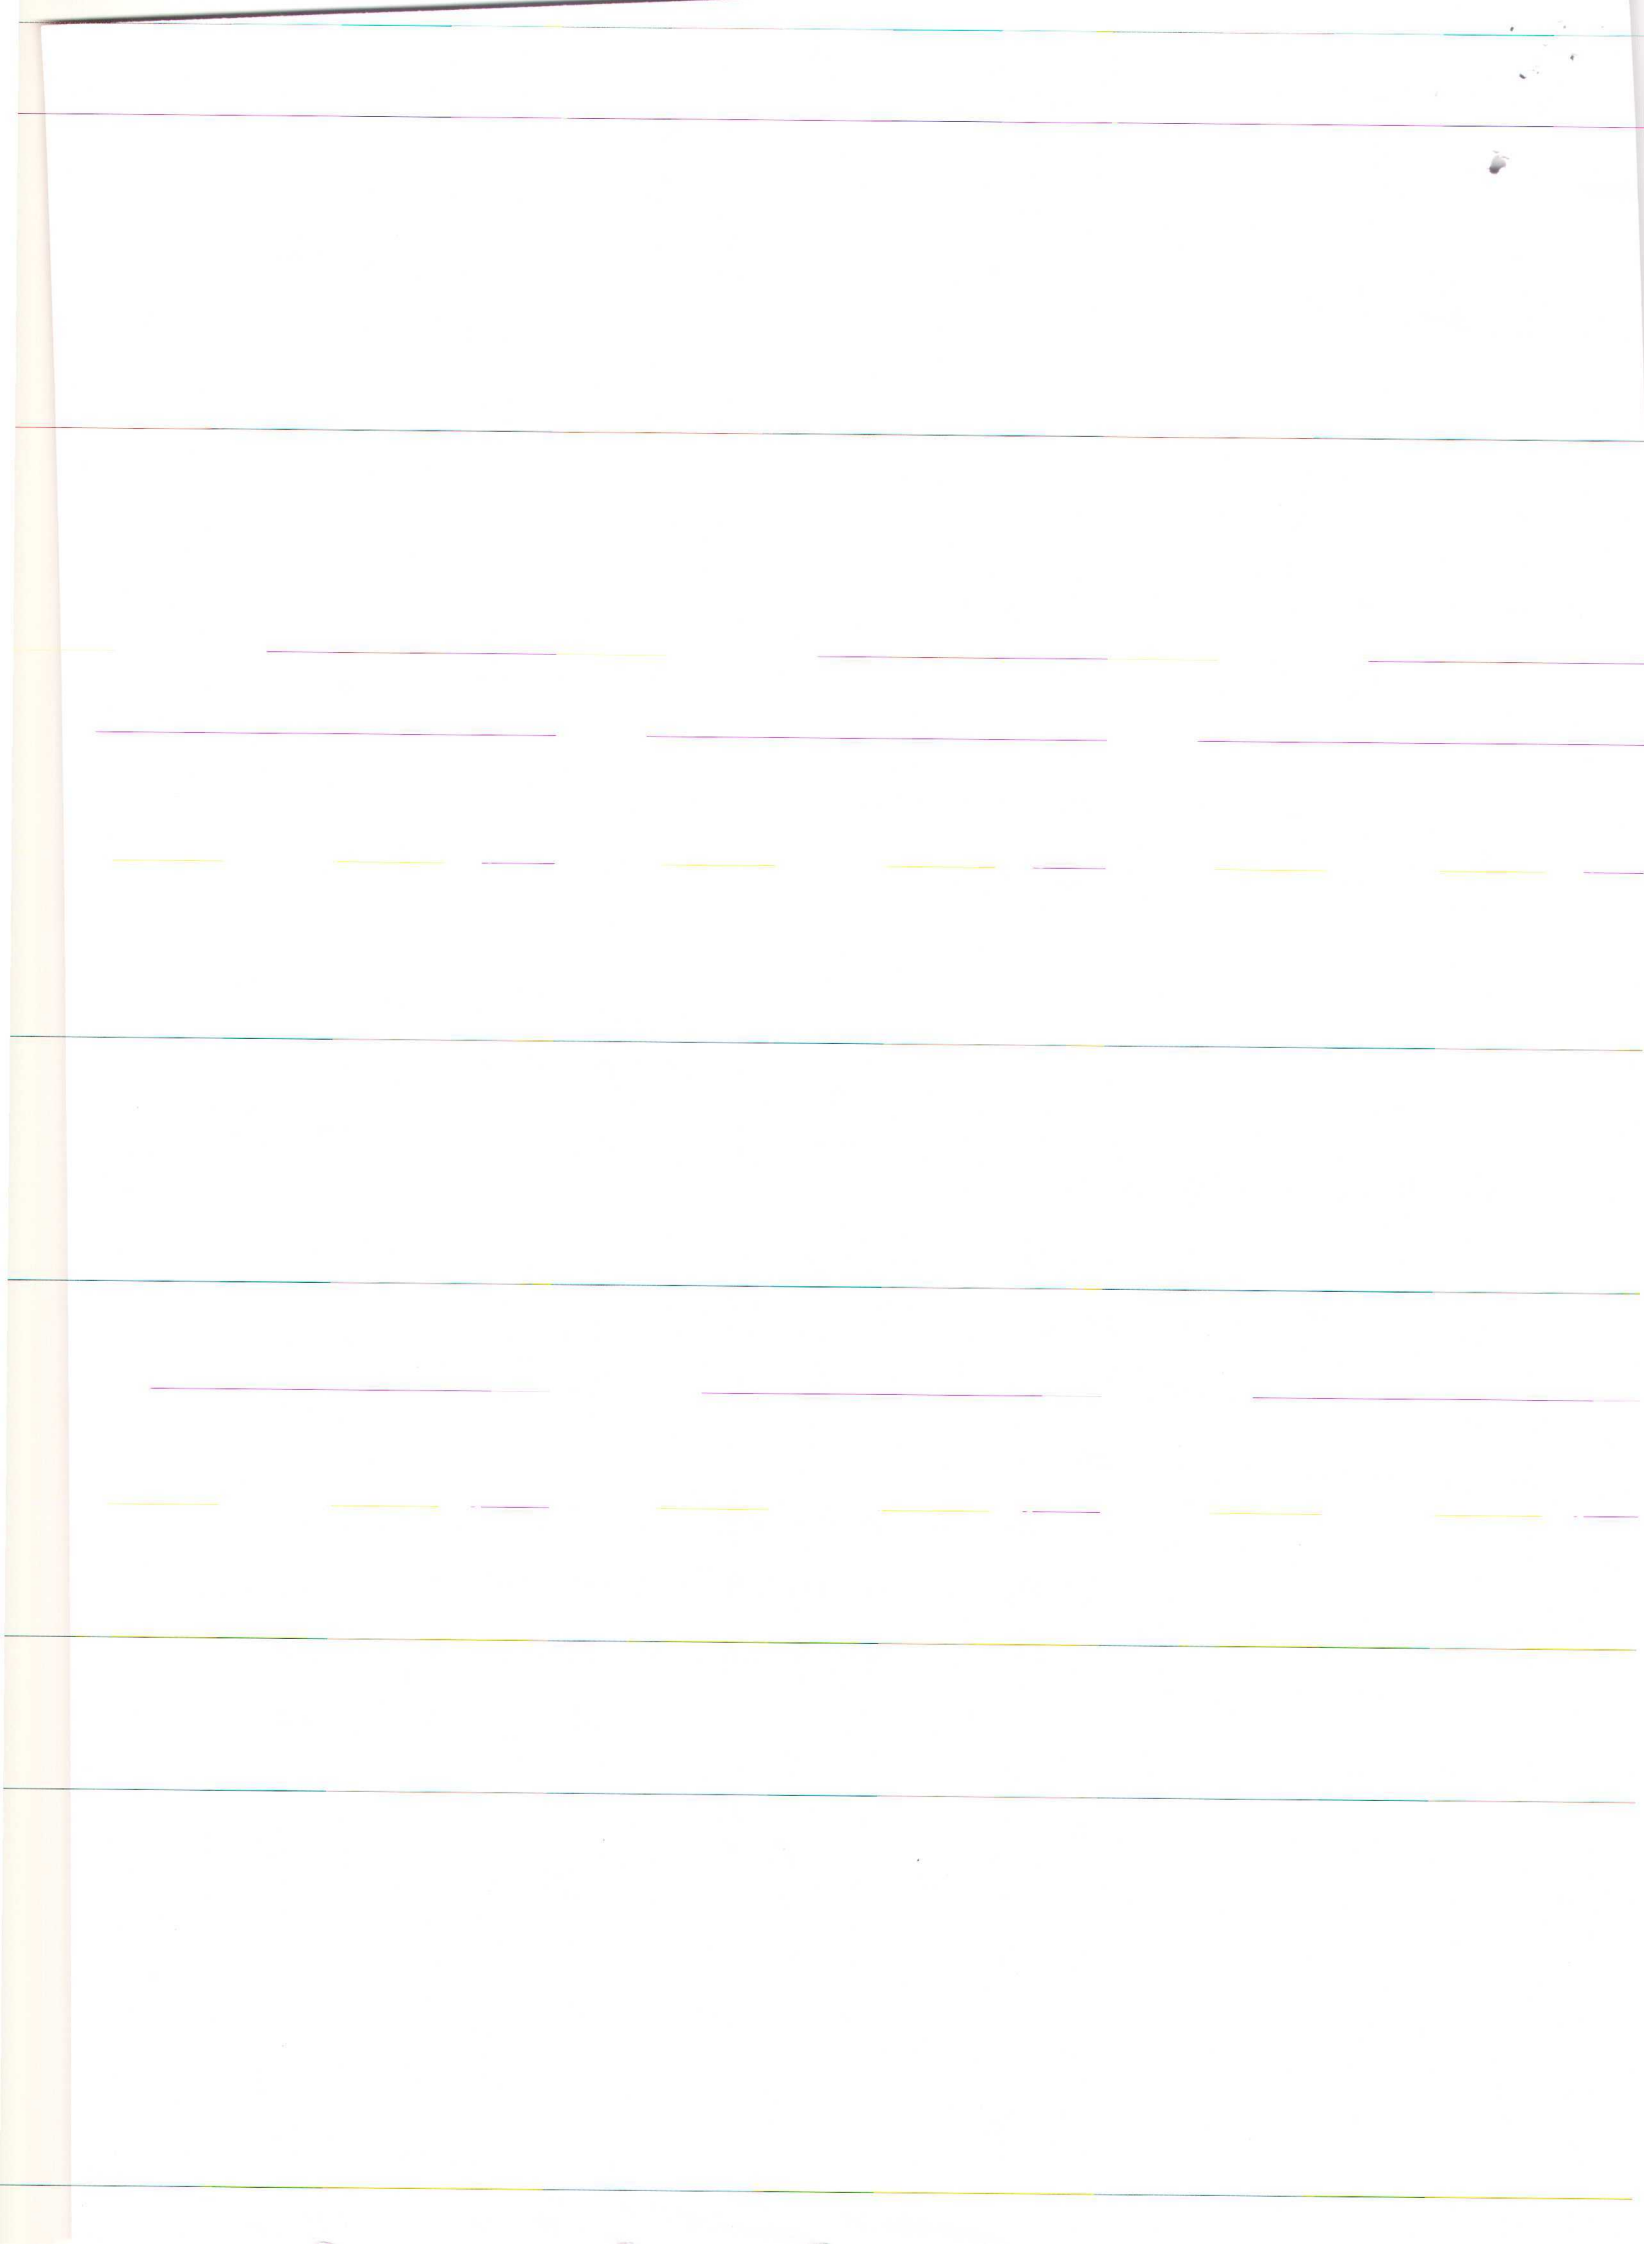

4. Directions of PGC

Since the police has already registered a case, the I.O. is advised to file charge sheet in the case within a period of 15 days. As no further action is required, the commission has decided to close the case.
