No. PA/ASFs/NFSA/2013/1461-1468

Dated: 20/11/15

CIRCULAR

Sub: Issuance of NFS cards under NFS Act

In compliance of Circular No. PA/ASFs/NFSA/2013/1364-69 dated 26/10/2015, identification of Ineligible households are being carried out by the Circle FSOs.

As per above circular new NFS cards will be issued only if Govt. of India increases the present cap of 72.78 lakh beneficiaries or cancellation of sufficient number of ineligible households cards. To have an assessment of the population who were eligible and beyond the limit of 72.78 lakh, IT Branch will ensure that NIC maintains a waiting list of approved applications who automatically get eligible to get ration as soon as vacancy is created due to deletion of ineligible persons.

In view of above and the number of beneficiaries being frozen, the gap, whenever is created and eligible applicants are available/approved it is decided to make a Priority/waiting list for inclusion of new beneficiaries as under :-

1. List of applications pending before the appellant authorities which were rejected by Circle FSOs earlier.
2. List of applications for addition of members in existing ration cards.
3. Fresh applications

Priority in issuance of cards / addition of members in the cards under NFS shall be made on above sequences. NIC is hereby requested to make a waiting list as per above priorities and upload on the system at the login of Circle FSOs so that vacancies are filled up as and when these are created.

This issues with the prior approval of Competent Authority.
