F.No.MLO/ARU/Tpt/2015/234/

Dated: 29th July, 2015

ORDER

Whereas, vide orders dated 21.04.2015 certain relaxations in conditions of Permit had been allowed for replacement of TSR in respect of legal heirs for females/Differently abled & Senior Citizens; and

Whereas, due to non fulfilling of certain permit conditions as stipulated vide orders dated 8.8.2012, the TSRs could not be transferred to the legal heirs of the aforementioned category; and

Whereas, by the time the aforesaid relaxation had been granted, the vehicles/TSRs had completed their stipulated life term of 15 years and thereafter, all the transactions are automatically locked by the System;

Whereas, in order to complete the transfer procedure, the module has to be opened through specific 'exe. code', to be generated by the Systems Branch/NIC, in all such specific cases and alongwith the said code, another code is required to be issued so as to block the computer from generating any superfluous penalty generated automatically by the system for late fitness (as no permit can be extended beyond 15 years); and

Thereafter, all vehicles falling in such category, as stated hereinabove, will be allowed the transaction for transfer to aforementioned legal heirs provided they approach the Auto Rickshaw Unit, Burari on or before 31st August, 2015

This issues with prior approval of the Competent Authority.
