Their promotion is further subject to the following terms and conditions:-

1. The adhoc promotion will not confer any right on the officer to claim for regular promotion to the post or any other service benefit.
2. The period of service rendered on adhoc basis will not count on officiating in higher grade for any purpose.
3. The competent authority can terminate the interim arrangement at any time without assigning any reasons and giving any prior notice.
4. Other conditions of service will be governed by the relevant rules and orders that may be in force from time to time.
5. The adhoc promotion is initially for a period of one year or till regular arrangement is made or till further orders whichever is earlier.
6. In case any officer is reverted from officiating post, the officer being the junior most, will be reverted back to his feeder post in the lower grade, if no other post of Foreman(E), Grade-I is available.

They will continue to work at their existing place posting. Their posting orders will be issued separately.

This issues with the approval of competent authority.
