

BEFORE THE HON'BLE LOKAYUKTA
Justice Reva Khetrpal
Complaint No.C-1670/Lok/2012

In the matter of :

Sh. Sunil Kumar

Complainant

Vs.

Holy World Sr. Sec. School & Ors.

Respondent

Present :

1. Shri Aman Baksi, Advocate for Complainant with Shri Sunil Kumar, Complainant in person
2. Shri Vishal Gohri, Advocate for Respondant with Shri Rakesh Sharma, Respondent No.4.

In response to the notice issued to the parties, ld. counsel for the Complainant has appeared with the Complainant in person and ld. counsel for the Respondent has also appeared with Respondent No.4, Shri Rakesh Sharma.

An application is filed on behalf of the Complainant stating therein that after the filing of the complaint and upon reading the reply, the Complainant does not wish to proceed with the complaint and seeks liberty to withdraw the same. It is further stated in the application that the application is voluntarily filed bonafide and in the interest of justice, without any pressure of any kind from any one to withdraw the allegations made in the complaint. The application is duly signed by the Complainant and supported by his affidavit. The Complainant is present in Court and affirms that he wants to withdraw the complaint.

Ld. counsel for the Respondent states on instructions from the Respondents including the Respondent No.4, who is present before this Forum, that the Respondents have no objection to the withdrawal of the complaint.

In view of the aforesaid, in my view, no purpose will be served by protracting the proceedings. The complaint is accordingly dismissed as withdrawn.

File be consigned to the Record Room.
