Dear Shri Kejriwalji,

As you are aware, NITI Aayog is mandated to foster cooperative federalism for economic growth and social development of the country. This involves not only Centre-State and State-State cooperation but also a spirit of healthy competition among the States. To fulfill this mandate of cooperative federalism, NITI Aayog is maintaining a state-of-the-art resource centre, which is a repository for research on good governance and best practices of sustainable and equitable development.

2. Against this background, I am enclosing a copy of the compendium on best practices across States titled "State Forward - Best Practices from other States" which has been compiled recently for information and further dissemination within your State. It is also requested that apart from these, any other best practices implemented in your State may also please be mailed to NITI Aayog at niti@niti.gov.in for compilation and dissemination among other States.

3. The soft copy of the book in PDF form is also being sent to you through your official e-mail for reference and circulation among all Ministers and senior officials of your State. I am sure that learning best practices from each other will enable our States to accelerate economic growth and hasten inclusion and social equity.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,
