Sub. : Amendment in the existing RRs for the post of Sub-Officer in Delhi Fire Service.

Sir,

With reference to above mentioned subject, I am to inform that Sh. Bhupal Singh Heet, Under Secretary, UPSC has raised some observations mentioned at Sl. No. (ii), (iv) and (v) (copy enclosed) which have to be complied with Delhi Fire Service, as under:

- (ii) Source of Physical Standards proposed for the post may be shared i.e. those are from some manual/role book.
- (iv) Hierarchy Chart may be drawn and furnished in prescribed performa (attached).
- (v) The draft RRs, as per DOPT guidelines (copy given) need to be put on the website of the department for eliciting comments/views of all stake-holders, for 30 days. Comments, if any, received may be considered and if found worthy, may be considered for incorporation in the draft RRs for the post. DFS is requested to upload the draft RRs for the post on its website for 30 days and furnish comments received thereon, if any, alongwith the DFS's comments thereon to this Deptt. A certificate in this connection is also required for onward transmission to the UPSC.

Further DFS is also requested to clarify the note to column 7(ii) and certificate regarding pending court cases on the subject matter.

It is requested to kindly resubmit the proposal after resolving the aforesaid objections raised by UPSC, to this office so that proposal for amendment in RRs for the post of Sub-Officer in Delhi Fire Service may be submitted to UPSC for its examination and concurrence.

Yours faithfully,
