1. Brief facts of the complaint

The complainant has filed a complaint stating that she had filed a complaint against her husband and mother-in-law regarding the offences of cruelty for dowry demand, mis-appropriation of her istridhan and cheating, committed by them with her. She further stated that an FIR No. 341/2015 , PS Begumpur, Delhi was registered u/s 498A/406/34 IPC and Section 4 Dowry Prohibition Act, and chargesheet was filed by the police before the Ld. Mahila court, Rohini Court, Delhi. However, despite of her specific allegation and documentary proof in support thereof regarding the offence of cheating, the police/IO did not file the chargesheet u/s 420 IPC or any other relevant provisions regarding the same. Resultantly, she filed an application u/s 156(3) Cr.P.C. for investigation and invocation of section 420 IPC in the abovesaid FIR. She further stated that the IO filed a status report before Ld. ACMM on 7.6.2017, wherein he has stated clearly false facts and has apparently created escape route for the accused Tarun goel. The IO seems to have connived with the accused while filing such false and misleading status report before the Honble Court. The complainant has requested for disciplinary action against ASI Ram Niwas, 318/OD, PS Begampur, who is IO in FIR NO. 341/2015.
