1. Brief facts of the complaint

The complainant has filed a complaint against police officials of non-registration of FIR on her complaint against her in-laws for breaking her father's hip bone. She has stated that on 29.12.2017 when she returned to her marital home she found that her house was unlocked and was occupied by her sister-in-law, Rani. Her belongings were also not there. On enquiring in this regard, all the members of her in-laws assembled there and started beating her, her daughter and her parents. She made a call in this regard at No. 100 but the assailants did not desist even after the arrival of the police and broken the hip bone of her father . The police has not registered FIR in the matter even after a medical report in this regard. She has alleged that a police was not acting on her complaints as her jeth/brother-in-law Bharat Singh was in Delhi Police. She has requested for legal action in t he matter.
