1. Brief facts of the complaint

The complainant has filed a complaint against police officials of PS Jafrabad for letting the culprits go scot free after accepting bribe. He has stated that a theft of Rs. 3.5 lakhs took place at his flat on 11.12.2017 on which an FIR No. 688/2017 was registered. The police apprehended his servant Chanderpal who accepted to have committed the crime during custodial interrogation and further disclosed the name of his associates Mukim and Mohd. Athar. The police apprehended his associates at his instance and during interrogation they admitted their offence and also disclosed the details of the incident as to who brought the iron rod, who broke the locks and who entered first. The complainant has claimed to be possessing the video recording of the said interrogation. He has alleged that the local police has accepted bribe from the alleged persons and let them go free. He has also alleged that the police is threatening him and pressurizing to withdraw his complaint. He has requested for legal action in the matter.
