OFFICE ORDER

The Department of Women and Child Development is running Delhi Pension Scheme to Women in Distress (Widow Pension) and Widow's Daughter Marriage (WDM) which has public interface at the District level.

I am directed to convey that all the district officers must ensure that the staff dealing with Public should remain courteous and facilitate the public. To avoid inconvenience for the beneficiaries, all the information regarding procedure of the scheme should be displayed at every counter of the District offices so that they are well aware about the scheme.

Further, In compliance to the matter raised in Delhi Vidhansabha on 09.08.2018, all the District Officers must intimate the concerned MLA's of each constituency about the number of forms received every month of both the schemes, number of sanctioned cases, number of rejected cases with reasons on monthly basis for their information.

This issues with the approval of Competent Authority.
