“On last hearing PGC advised department to examine whether there are other similar cases as that of the complainant and if so, his case may be considered at par with those cases.

On examining the records, department found one case of Mr. Tejpal Singh (retired compounder) similar to Sh. Sriram and it was found that Mr. Tejpal Singh was given 2nd ACP on 19.01.2007 and Sh. Sriram was given MACP from 01.09.2008.

Then department re-examined both the cases through Finance department and it was observed that the benefits extended to Sh. Sriram are in accordance with the provisions contained in the issued OM pertaining to ACP/MACP and the benefit of 2nd ACP given to Mr. Tejpal Singh is in wrong order.

So, in view of this the case of Mr. Tejpal Singh shall be regulated at par with Sh. Sriram and department has initiated the action for OPR/correction in this regard.
