RULES REGARDING SENDING NOMINATIONS FOR THE AWARD FOR DEVELOPMENT AND WELFARE OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN

1. This Award is for a woman/women and not for an institution.
2. Women of foreign origin who are residing in India holding an Indian citizenship; and worked for a minimum period of 15 years in the areas of development and welfare of women and children of India, can apply for this award.
3. Nominations received from the heads of recognized institutions and other representative bodies and/or from eminent individuals as also those sent by any of them on their own initiative, will be considered for the Awards.

The term 'Institutions and other representative bodies' covers Universities, Research Bodies, Social Welfare Institutions, Khadi and Village Industries/Organisations, Chambers of Commerce, Rotary, Inner Wheel and Lions Clubs, concerned Government Departments of the Centre and the States and similar bodies.

The heads of these institutions or bodies - Vice-Chancellors, Presidents, Secretaries and others may send their recommendations in their individual capacity also.

4. Nominations recommended by relatives and/or by the office bearers/members of the organisation of the nominee will not be considered.
5. Self-nominations will not be considered.
6. The recommender/s should send factual information about the overall work pertaining to the nominees on the basis of the stated criteria.
7. Nominations in respect of any woman who has been the recipient of any of these Awards in the past will not be applicable for submission.
8. The Foundation may defer or withhold conferring the Award in any year if, in the opinion of the Council of Advisers of the Foundation, no nominee/s is/are found suitable for receiving the Award.

CRITERIA FOR EVALUATION

In assessing the merits of women recommended for this Award, the overall impact and the spread effect of their work and the specific benefits accruing therefrom to women and children will be taken into account. In particular, the following will be considered:

In what way and to what extent the work done has helped:

- (a) The mentally, physically and sexually abused, neglected, deserted, exploited, ailing women and widows, especially from rural and tribal areas.
- (b) The uncared for, discarded, destitute and exploited children, including orphans and juvenile children in conflict with law, especially from rural areas.

Preference will be given to those women who may have been doing their work through an institutional setup, have fostered the spirit of teamwork, and have developed a second line of leadership to ensure stability and continuity of the activities/projects undertaken by them.
