ORDER

Country is celebrating 'Aazadi ka Amrit Mahotsav' on 75th year of Independence. In the yester years many changes have taken place on socio-economy front which has brought the country in the Centre of World economy and polity. Road map for further progress for "Amrit Kal" i.e., for next 25 years (2022-2047) has been charted out as Vision 2047. Since Labour is an important aspect of the Economy, specifically the component of services and manufacturing in the economy, which depends largely on skilled and technically equipped Labour force, there is need of change in perception and policy towards better work environment with greater participation of women.

To articulate these changes and recommend aspects and for recommendations with respect to changes in policy level having better work environment, greater digitalization of the work force and increase in participation of women, a Committee is being constituted with following members:-

1. Sh. H. N. Singh, Dy. Labour Commissioner – Chairperson.
2. Sh. Kishanveer, Dy. Secretary, DBOCW WB – Member.
3. Dr. A.V.K. Rao, Asstt. Electrical Inspector – Member.
4. Sh. Deepash Bansal, Asstt. Director, ISH – Member.
5. Sh. Sunil Gupta, Labour Officer – Member.
6. Sh. Sanjay Kumar, Labour Officer – Member.
7. Ms. Soniya Thakran, Labour Officer – Member.
8. Sh. Raj Kumar Meena, Labour Inspector(South West)- Member

The Committee may seek participation as and when required from IT, Law and Administration as a Special invitee.

The Committee may also go through the document prepared by the Ministry of Labour & Employment on Vision 2047 and submit their report with recommendations.

This issues with the approval of the Competent Authority.
