Grievance No. : PGC/2022/A.II/GST/01

Brief facts of the case 1.

Shri Aditya Sodhani proprietor of Shubham Steel has filed a grievance in the Commission stating that he has been a regular dealer of DVAT Department, Ward No. 66, New Delhi having Tin No. 07780196759. He has already been assessed upto 30.6.2017 (last date of operation of DVAT Act in our trade). He was allowed a refund of Rs. 2,99,744/- vide reference No. 664057 dated 22.2.2021 by the AVATO Ward No. 66 on account of excess input tax credit standing in his DVAT return for the quarter ended on 30.6.2017. Till date, the refund has not been credited in his account inspite of his counsel dealing with the case visited the department more than hundred times but of no avail. He further stated that he has already sent four e-mails to the Commissioner, DVAT, Delhi and also to the Special Commissioner, who is the incharge of his ward but no reply was received. The complainant has requested the Commission to direct the concerned department for the release of DVAT refund.

Facts emerged during the hearing 2.

2.1 Shri Rakesh K. Sharma, Deputy Controller of Accounts and Shri Chander Sen, GSTO, Ward-66 are present. As per the status report, "VAT refund amounting to Rs. 2,99,744/- in respect of M/s.
