Sir,

This has reference to the online application mentioned in reference. In this context it is informed that the said firm is operating an industrial kitchen at ground floor of the premises bearing address A-257, Okhla Industrial Area, Phase -I, New Delhi - 110020. Industrial kitchens fall under Industrial Occupancy and the application for Fire safety Clearance shall be referred to this department through the local authority/ building sanctioning authority as per Rule 34 of Delhi Fire Service Rules 2010, with following documents:

1. Sanctioned plan of the building.
2. In case sanctioned plan is not available, 'as built Plan' prepared by a registered architect with including section elevation plan.
